

Internship: Human Resources

Basis: Fulltime

Location: Berlin, Friedrichstrasse 95

Reports to: Global Head of HR

Starting Date: 15.09.2014, for min. of 3 months

Who we are

Amatheon Agri is a European agribusiness and farming company developing and operating sustainable agriculture and food projects in Sub-Saharan Africa, headquartered in Berlin.

Amatheon aims to create shareholder value and increased food production through the development of new large scale agriculture operations, the application of state-of-the-art farming techniques and vertical integration across the agricultural value chain.

Amatheon is committed to act in a manner that is socially responsible and reflects sound environmental management practices.

What we offer

As HR intern in our Berlin head office you have the opportunity to support the global HR team in strategic HR projects and operational services both for the Berlin team as well as our country subsidiaries in Africa.

Guided by our experienced HR team you will gain working experience in all HR matters and be able to engage in interesting as well as challenging tasks. As member of our international and diverse team you can directly contribute to shape the future of Amatheon, our HR and people practices as well as ultimately and most importantly: make a difference in Africa.

Of course, if project activities allow it, you might also get the chance to work on the ground in our African subsidiaries.
