

Prof. Dr. Markus Paulus – Curriculum Vitae

2000-2007

Studies at the University of Eichstätt

2003

Study abroad at the University of Oulu (Finland)

2006

Diploma in Psychology (minors: Italian literature, History, Economics, Philosophy)

2006-2007

Personal Assistant of the Vice-President of the University of Eichstätt

2007

M.A. in Philosophy/Sociology

2007-2011

Ph.D. student at the Donders Institute for Brain, Cognition and Behaviour, Radboud University Nijmegen (Netherlands)

2010

Research Visit, Early Social Development Lab (Prof. Chris Moore), Halifax (Canada)

2011

Ph.D. in Psychology (with distinction)

Dissertation: Development of action perception: Neurocognitive mechanisms underlying children's processing of others' actions (Promotor: Harold Bekkering)

2011-2013

Lecturer at the Chair for Developmental and Educational Psychology, LMU München

2012/13

Junior Researcher in Residence at the Center for Advanced Studies (CAS), LMU München

Summer 2013

Substitute Chair for Developmental and Educational Psychology, University of Erfurt

2013

George Butterworth Young Scientist Award, European Association for Developmental Psychology (EADP)

since 09/2013

Professor for Developmental and Educational Psychology, LMU München

2016

Distinguished Early Career Award, International Conference on Infant Studies (ICIS)